This week's Sermon is based on Psalm 23 and John 10:11-18 Easter Sermon Series: Belong. Behave. Believe. When You Say Nothing At All

“The good shepherd lays his life down for his sheep”. Jesus tells us that he came to rescue his sheep from the grip of the ravenous wolf, the false shepherds and all those who lead to death. He storms the gates of hell, sin and death. His weapons are His word and his body crucified on the cross and blood shed on the cross. The Shepherd lays down his life for his sheep. In his death he makes the supreme sacrifice, and reconciles us all to God. The shepherd became a sheep—the very Lamb of God—and becomes the bloody Lamb of sacrifice. Why did He do this? The scriptures declare that all we like sheep have gone astray, every one to his own way. What about you? Have you gone astray?

What can we do? Is there no protection? Listen to Christ's words. “I know my sheep and am known by them. My sheep hear my voice and they follow me.” Through His word in the Bible we hear his voice, His voice reminding us how much he loves us. Through them the Good Shepherd guides and protects us. In them we hear His voice as he comforts and leads us to a pasture beside still waters where he restores our souls. Yes, all we like sheep have gone astray, but the scriptures continue...”and the Lord has laid on Him the iniquities of us all...He was led as a lamb to the slaughter.” For the sake of Jesus, by His stripes he has healed all his sick sheep. We are forgiven for all the times we have followed other voices, other shepherds. The Lord has carried us upon His shoulders.

There is only one shepherd. He is the Good Shepherd, Jesus Christ. We have heard his voice. Even though we all stray at times, he chases us down, gathering us in his arms and close to his heart. There he removes our burs with his nail pierced hands and tends our wounds and makes us well and gives us life...His life laid down for his sheep. Hear the voice of Jesus. “I am the good shepherd, who lays His life down for his sheep.” Such is His love for you. Amen.

Senior Fellowship Book Club

Come join the fun!!! WMUMC book club is for all 50+ folks (however, we do not really age discriminate, so if you are not yet 50 but love to read, you are still welcome to join us!) Join us for the next book club gathering on Thursday, May 16th at noon at Tuscany Ristorante Italiano. The book we are reading is the #1 New York Times bestseller "The Boys from Biloxi." John Grisham returns to Mississippi in his most gripping legal thriller yet, the riveting story of two sons of immigrant families who grow up as friends, but ultimately find themselves on opposite sides of the law. Grisham's trademark twists and turns will keep you tearing through the pages until the stunning conclusion.

For most of the last hundred years, Biloxi was known for its beaches, resorts, and seafood industry. But it had a darker side. It was also notorious for corruption and vice, everything from gambling, prostitution, bootleg liquor, and drugs to contract killings. The vice was controlled by a small cabal of mobsters, many of them rumored to be members of the Dixie Mafia.

Keith Rudy and Hugh Malco grew up in Biloxi in the sixties and were childhood friends, as well as Little League all-stars. But as teenagers, their lives took them in different directions. Keith's father became a legendary prosecutor, determined to "clean up the Coast." Hugh's father became the "Boss" of Biloxi's criminal underground. Keith went to law school and followed in his father's footsteps. Hugh preferred the nightlife and worked in his father's clubs. The two families were headed for a showdown, one that would happen in a courtroom.

Life itself hangs in the balance in The Boys from Biloxi, a sweeping saga rich with history and with a large cast of unforgettable characters.

The book for July will be "Magic Hour" by Kristin Hannah. Please RSVP to Linda Brooks that you will be attending.
